

Time Complexity of BFS.

- * Each vertex enters Q exactly once
- * If graph is connected, loop is to process Q iteration for n times
- * for each j extracted from Q , need to examine all the neighbours of j .
- * In adjacency matrix, scan row j : n entries

Hence, Overall time $O(n^2)$: Adj. Matrix.